Hobart and Southern Tasmania

Hobart is the perfect contradiction between old and new, making it the ideal home for the internationally acclaimed Museum of Old and New Art (MONA). Take Salamanca Place for example, where many visitors are surprised to discover the number of chic restaurants and wine bars housed within the historic sandstone warehouses. Salamanca Market is also held here every Saturday.

Beautifully preserved Australian heritage is widely available in Hobart and its surrounds. Historic Richmond village is just 30 minutes from Hobart. Oil-painting pretty, it is home to Australia's oldest bridge, gaol and Catholic Church. Drive a bit further to discover World Heritage Listed Port Arthur Historic Site, a reminder of Tasmania's rich convict history.

Port Arthur and the Tasman Peninsula are also home to some breathtaking natural scenery, particularly tall sea cliffs, rock formations and pristine bays. For more stunning views, drive to the summit of Mount Wellington for spectacular views of the city or visit the Huon Valley, just outside Hobart, home to the Tahune Forest AirWalk where you can walk amongst the treetops. Don't forget to call in at one of the many farm gates for some fresh produce while you meander down the Huon Trail or take the car ferry across to Bruny Island for paddock to plate style fare.

North Western Tasmania

Diverse as it is beautiful; the North West Coast dishes up a hearty serving of surreal wilderness, wildlife, artisans, fresh produce and local characters. More than that, it offers the chance to lose yourself in a world that offers a true escape from everyday life. Breathe in some of the world's cleanest air, savour a mouthful of locally grown berries or cruise through the ancient wilderness.

The West Coast town of Strahan is the gateway to Tasmania's World Heritage wilderness. Further north, you will find the Tarkine, the largest tract of temperate rainforest in Australia. Be sure to allow time for a stop at Stanley – a charming seaside village that sits in the shadow of The Nut, an old volcanic plug.

Climb Cradle Mountain and marvel at the pure majesty of this alpine wilderness. For something different, call into Sheffield the town of murals and visit the World of Marbles or the Highlander Restaurant and Scottish Scone Shop.

For the food lover, visit the farms and local producers churning out goodies from handcrafted cheese and chocolates to berries and fresh salmon. And don't forget King Island for some of the best beef and dairy offerings to be found.

Launceston and Northern Tasmania

If it's a thriving food and wine scene, stunning natural attractions, and beautiful Georgian streetscapes you're after, then don't miss Launceston.

Why not slip back a gear and laze away a day touring the famed Tamar Valley Wine Route? Situated just north of Launceston, the Tamar Valley is home to 32 wineries offering cellar door tastings of their premium cool-climate wines. The Tamar Valley Wine Route is considered to be one of the top wine routes in the world. Beer lovers can also tour Boag's Brewery right in the city's heart.

Nestled just outside Launceston's CBD is the majestic Cataract Gorge, home to hiking trails, wildlife, and one of the world's longest single span chairlift that takes in some amazing views. Be sure to nourish your historical curiosity and venture out to the 19th Century built towns of Evandale and Longford – home to two World Heritage Listed properties.

East Coast

The East Coast of Tasmania provides a coastal getaway with a difference. Imagine a breathtaking combination of white sandy beaches, fascinating wildlife, tantalising farm gates, unspoilt national parks, and a mild climate. Combine these elements and you start to get a picture of what the East Coast has to offer.

Wander through boutique vineyards, kayak along the pristine coastline, walk, dive, take a cruise; or just do nothing and laze the day away enjoying fresh local seafood and wine at Freycinet Marine Farm. And if you're after something sweet, head south to Kate's Berry Farm at Swansea for delicious desserts and chocolates. Don't miss Pyengana Dairy in the north for 'melt in your mouth' cheeses.

The East Coast is a purely indulgent landscape; from St Helens and the famed Bay of Fires in the north to the Freycinet Peninsula including Wineglass Bay and Swansea in the south, the East Coast is a must-see holiday destination.

Hobart

Seasoned travellers keep coming back to Hobart to enjoy its beauty, uniqueness and the warm and friendly locals. Recently voted one of the top ten 'world's best cities to visit' by Lonely Planets and ranked in the top ten of the 'world's friendliest cities' by Conde Nest Traveller, it's not surprising that Hobart is one of Australia's hottest, yet humble, holiday destinations.

Hobart encompasses everything we love about Tasmania. It's a city that's come of age with its vibrant contemporary art, culture and dining scene. And then there's the incredible harbour that entices locals and tourists to its waters; where fishing, sailing and relaxing are common pastimes.

If you love seafood, Hobart will have you hooked! Salamanca Market is an explosion of colour and flavour, a fresh array of local produce with an eclectic market buzz.

With so much fresh fare, Hobart's chefs are spoilt for choice, and so are you. North Hobart's renowned restaurant strip is a gourmet dream, and the surrounding the wine country rates highly too.

Southern Tasmania

Hobart's hard to leave, but Richmond beckons and this picture perfect town will draw you in with its 19th century Georgian buildings. Richmond is also home to Australia's oldest bridge, gaol and Catholic Church. Step outside the city to the Coal River Valley, Derwent Valley and Huon Valley wine regions and sample some of Tasmania's best wines while taking in the most picturesque settings.

South of Hobart is fabulous Bruny Island. Beautiful beaches, tall cliffs and lush countryside make this a tranquil yet unpredictable place. Your taste buds will be teased and tempted with a variety of paddock to plate style produce from artisan cheeses, oysters and more.

Travel on to Huonville, where more than half of Tasmania's apples are grown. This is orchard central, bursting with plums, cherries, pears and apricots – all of which are celebrated in March at the annual Taste of the Huon festival.

Walk through the treetops? Well you can at Tahune AirWalk, a 597 metre walkway set above the Tahune Forest Reserve. It is also home to the world's tallest flowering plant.

Port Arthur

World Heritage Listed Port Arthur Historic Site is a Tasmanian landmark dating back to 1830 as a penal settlement, and it's a place that remains eerie yet beautiful. The site has over 30 buildings, ruins and restored period homes set in 40 hectares of landscaped grounds. Allow plenty of time to fully experience all that Port Arthur has to offer. While you're in the area, take an eco cruise to see abundant marine life and the spectacular coastline of the Tasman Peninsula.

It's another world in North Western Tasmania, and one certainly worth a visit. There is a tranquillity here that's unique to the region; arts and craft artisans really shine, and the red earth produces wonderfully fresh produce that is craved across Australia.

The rich farmland of the North West is as beautiful as it is bountiful, so take your time to travel along the Bass Strait from Devonport to Penguin, Burnie and Wynyard, through to coastal Stanley and Marrawah. The charming village of Stanley lies in the shadow of the ancient volcanic plug known as The Nut. Climb to the top via the track or take the chairlift. Either way, once you make it to the top the view will take your breath away.

Tasmania's wild west is what everybody talks about, and deservedly so. Here lies some of the most spectacular wilderness on the planet. Arguably, the most famous of which is Cradle Mountain, the reflection of which can be seen in the cool, still water of Dove Lake. This is a landscape of steep gorges, wild rivers, and dense forest. At the southern end of Cradle Mountain is Lake St Clair, Australia's deepest freshwater lake. Canoe, walk, fish, or just enjoy the beauty – the choice is yours.

The coastal town of Strahan is the gateway to Tasmania's glorious World Heritage Listed Wilderness, which you can experience, on a cruise or on foot. The cruise will take you to Macquarie Harbour and Sarah Island, a place rich with convict era history.

Launceston and Northern Tasmania

Launceston

Choosing a base in the centre of northern Tasmania is simple: it has to be Launceston. Here you can eat, drink and be merry. This is a city that prides itself on its artisans, including chefs, wine makers, farmers and fishermen who all share a passion for local produce.

Let's start with Launceston's most fantastic attraction just 10 minutes from the city centre, Cataract Gorge. Explore rock-walled walking trails and marvel at the South Esk River travelling through the gorge. Then, take a tour of Boag's Brewery – one of Launceston's most famous exports.

Launceston is where all the produce grown and made in the region is available for you to enjoy in restaurants, delis and cafés. If you prefer to get your gourmet fare direct from the source, that's easy! Travel the Tamar Valley Wine Route through fields of lavender, strawberries and grapes. Mole Creek's wildlife park is great fun, and it's also on the food and wine trail, just like Westbury's village green.

Just outside Launceston, step back in time at historic Longford – home to World Heritage Listed Woolmers and Brickendon Estates. Evandale is another nearby quaint Georgian village with a weekly Sunday market and host of the annual National Penny Farthing Championships in February.

King Solomon and Marakoopa Caves, both near the town of Mole Creek, showcase glow worms that twinkle, to the delight of visitors, and highlight the incredible caves in which they live.

If adrenalin is more your forté don't miss Hollybank Treetops adventures, only 15 minutes from Launceston. Get high in the tree tops and fly like a bird. If you prefer relaxation, then plan an afternoon cruising the Tamar River and experience superb scenery, wildlife and most importantly sample some delicious local wine.

Picnic on Wineglass Bay beach – one of the world's best

Walk the glistening white sands of the Bay of Fires

Treat yourself to fresh oysters, scallops, lobsters and fish at Coles Bay, Bicheno and St Helens

Household names abound along Tasmania's East Coast: the Bay of Fires, Freycinet National Park, Wineglass Bay and Maria Island – they're all here for your enjoyment, and they're all equally spectacular.

It's postcard-perfect scenery at the Freycinet Peninsula. See the peaks of the Hazards, crystal clear water and white sand. A Wineglass Bay cruise is a great way to experience this natural wonder or hike up Mt Amos for a supreme bird's-eye view of this paradise. Freycinet National Park is also a bird-watcher's paradise. Look skyward for White Bellied sea eagles and Yellow Tailed black cockatoos.

Seasoned travellers who think they've seen it all quickly change their tune when it comes to the Bay of Fires. With its white beaches, blue water and granite boulders splashed with orange lichen, this 30 kilometre stretch along the north east coast is just the ticket to the holiday of a lifetime. Maria Island is also a very special place and only accessible by ferry from Triabunna. The island is renowned for its stunning natural beauty, wildlife and convict history.

There are also great holiday towns dotted up and down the East Coast - St Helens, Bicheno, Swansea and Orford to name a few. Each has plenty to keep you occupied including cafés, restaurants, and boutiques including popular spots such as Kate's Berry Farm, Pyengana Dairy and Freycinet Marine Farm.

Fishing ports Bicheno and St Helens, are also an angler's dream, and divers reckon these spots are pretty special too. The pristine underwater environment spurs kelp forests and abundant fish life.

HOW TO BOOK

Contact your licensed travel agent who will request a reservation for you. Any verbal quote given is an estimate only of the price, which will be subject to change until written confirmation of the reservation. All reservations are subject to availability.

PRICES AND CONDITIONS

Prices in this brochure are valid for travel from 1 October 2013 to 31 March 2015, unless otherwise specified. Prices are in Australian Dollars, unless otherwise specified, and include GST where applicable.

All prices are subject to availability and can be withdrawn or varied without notice. Prices are provided as a guide only and may vary due to changes in surcharges, fees or taxes or due to currency fluctuations. Please check all prices, conditions and information with your travel agent before booking.

The price of your holiday may change at any time up to 30 days before your departure if any new surcharges, fees or taxes are introduced or if any existing surcharges, fees or taxes are varied, even after you have paid all or part of the quoted price of your holiday.

If we have to change any part of your booking for reasons beyond our control, for example, an Accommodation Supplier overbooks accommodation, or if there is an increase in taxes or Supplier charges, we will notify you. If any such changes result in your holiday costing more or otherwise being materially different from that originally booked, then you may cancel the holiday and we will refund any monies already paid less any charges levied by Suppliers.

Some Suppliers may impose conditions that vary from the conditions stated in this brochure. Please ask your travel agent at the time of booking if different conditions apply.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS

Prices in this brochure are for payments made by cash. A credit card surcharge will apply when paying by credit card. Please check this fee with your travel agent before booking.

PRICES DO NOT INCLUDE

Anything not specifically indicated as being an inclusion of the package is an additional expense.

DEPOSITS AND FINAL PAYMENT

Deposit

A minimum non-refundable deposit of $55 per adult or $110 per booking, whichever is the greater, is required within 7 days of confirmation of your booking, unless otherwise advised at the time of booking. Some Suppliers may impose deposits in addition to the minimum deposits stated in this brochure. A deposit holds services but does not guarantee prices.

Final Payment

Full payment of your holiday cost must be made no later than 30 days prior to travel, or by sale end date, or by the payment deadline specified in individual package conditions, whichever is earliest. For bookings made 30 days or less prior to travel, full payment of holiday cost is required at the time your booking is confirmed.

Please ensure payments are made by the due dates. If this does not happen, our computer system automatically cancels the booking without notice or liability to you.

Only upon payment of the full cost of your holiday do you have a final booking with the Supplier of the relevant good and/or service. In arranging your booking, Sunlover Holidays is acting as the agent of the Supplier of the relevant Product and at no time do you have a contract with Sunlover Holidays.

MINIMUM BOOKING REQUIREMENT

Bookings of less than $150 will incur a service fee of $27 per booking.

AMENDMENT FEES

Any amendment to your booking is subject to the approval of the relevant Supplier. Any approved change to your booking prior to, at or after making final payment will incur an amendment fee of $27 in addition to any fees imposed by the Supplier.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

Prior to final payment: There will be no refund of your deposit.

After final payment: There will be no refund of your deposit, in addition to any fees imposed by the Supplier, which may be up to 100% of monies paid.

After travel: There will be no refund for cancellation once travel has commenced. There will be no refund for any unused services, with the exception of SUNFLEX services where the service is unused due to rain for the entire stay. Requests for refunds received more than 6 months after departure date will not be accepted.

Other bonds may apply at certain times of the year. Check with your travel agent prior to booking.

A number of airfares can be used in conjunction with your holiday package. All airfares are subject to availability and have special conditions. In most instances airfares must be paid in full at the time of booking and are non-refundable.

Travel insurance is strongly recommended as it may protect you if you cancel your holiday due to unforeseen circumstances. Ask your travel agent for details.

TRANSFERS

Some Accommodation Suppliers provide courtesy transfers from airports/railway stations. It is essential that these transfers are pre-booked. Some Tour Suppliers provide complimentary pick up and return to your holiday accommodation. This service must be confirmed with the Supplier 24 hours prior to departure.

Additionally, some Suppliers reserve the right to cancel departures for other reasons. Some tours and itineraries may also vary and attractions may be substituted due to seasonal conditions. Sunlover Holidays will not be held liable for a service variation, cancellation, delay or withdrawal, or a Supplier's failure to notify you.
